CONCLUSIONS

- 1. Present overcrowding is serious and will worsen as additional technical systems are added.
- 2. Ability to support additional ESE is marginal.
- 3. Problems must be solved either by additional leased property or by construction.
- 4. New construction is most desirable alternative; however, it cannot be justified without modification to OMB guidelines.
- 5. The Master Plan or Multiple Use Building is the most desirable option.